

Write. Now.

Think about who you are as a person. Develop your beliefs, your point of view, your perspective and you can start doing the same for your characters.

Sit down and do this.

Finish the following thoughts:

- I love.....
- I am afraid of.....
- I would never....
- I always try to.....
- My biggest pet peeve is.....
- The oddest thing about me is.....
- I think normal is.....
- I wish the world was.....
- The one thing I would change is.....
- The one thing I would do over again is.....

You wrote today. Well done.
